GIVING

Each one of us has been bestowed with many gifts from the Lord: the gifts of our unique talents, the gifts of our time here on earth and material gifts, as well. We are called to be good stewards of these gifts – to use them to help build up His Kingdom on Earth and to provide for others who are less fortunate. As Christian stewards, we are asked to use our time and talents to advance the ministry of the Church and to donate a portion of our treasure for the Lord’s work.

We all are invited to support our St. Jerome Parish family. Our community is struggling financially and is currently operating at a deficit. We are asking that those of you who are not donating to the parish to begin and those who are donating to increase your donation. There are different ways to donate:

You can support the parish by using Sunday Offering Envelopes.

You can support the parish using pre-authorized debit.

You can support the parish using online giving found on our website. Your financial contribution assists the parish in its work and mission in the community. Your kind financial assistance to the parish is greatly appreciated.

WEEKLY PRAYER REFLECTION

Dare to call God 'Father', Pope Francis says at audience

ROME - Reflecting on when Jesus taught the apostles how to say the "Our Father" in the gospel according to Luke, Pope Francis said on Wednesday that Christian prayer is characterized by having the courage to call God by the name of "Father."

"Calling God by the name 'Father' is not something that can be taken for granted," the pope said during his general audience June 7. "We are tempted to use the highest titles, which are respectful of his transcendence. But calling him 'Father' puts us in His confidence, like a child talking to his dad, knowing that he is loved and cared for by him." The pope underlined that even at Mass, when the priest calls the faithful gathered to pray the "Our Father," he uses the words "we dare to say." This is the great revolution brought forth by Christianity to man's religious psychology, the pope added.

"The mystery of God, which has always fascinated us and made us feel small, doesn't scare us anymore, it doesn't pressure us or anguish us," the pope told the crowd of 15,000 people gathered at St. Peter's Square. Pope Francis quoted the parable of the merciful father, who not only loves his children above all else but also is willing to give his son his inheritance and allow him to leave home. God is not a father in the "human sense," the pope said, for no human father would stand for such arrogance from a son.

"God is a Father in his own way: good, helpless before man's free will, only able to conjugate the verb 'to love'," Pope Francis said. "God is a father who does not apply human justice and is ready to forgive and embrace his long lost son."

The pope reminded those gathered that this unconditional love is unfathomable and even the apostle Paul did not translate in Greek the Aramaic term "abbà," which some interpret to mean "daddy" or "papa."

"We are never alone," Pope Francis said. "We can be distant, hostile, we can even declare ourselves 'without God.' But the Gospel of Jesus Christ reveals that God cannot be without us: He will never be a God 'without man'." When we pray the "Our Father" we reinforce our hope, the pope said, and when we need help we can speak to the Lord "who always watches us with love, and who surely won't abandon us."
